From Curing To Healing Cherian Koshy,2024-12-06 Improving the 'Bandwidth' in patient care by exploring the fault lines between 'Curing and Healing', words often used synonymously is analysed. 'Nobody dies cured but we can die healed'. An understanding of the transitivity and valency of these verbs, helps in understanding the nuances of 'curing and healing'. The paraplegic at the Coffee vending machine is not cured but 'healed' An autobiographical narrative this book describes the treating of Air Crash Victims, in of one of worst crashes in the country at Bangalore, smashed faces, hand injuries, burns, and body sculpting surgery. Moving thence to Regional Cancer Centre, Trivandrum it became cancer surgery, reconstruction, and palliative care. The PEPSI model of care described, herein mandates taking care of Physical issues like fractures, cancers, pain (P) Emotional issues like depression, (E) Psychological and Psychosocial issues (P) Spiritual Concerns (S) and Interpersonal relationships (I). A holistic approach celebrating 'life' with the 'celebrity the patient is exhorted' not being a fan of the 'celebrity' who endorses Pepsi! Thus, we help patients 'Live' till they 'Leave' focussing on quality of life as the race for quality doesn't have a finishing line!

Transformation at the Speed of People Richard W. Bridges,2021-07-07 In these chapters, Rick Bridges invites us on his successful and internationally acclaimed journey of leading enterprise-wide change. He shares his insights, stories, and proven methods for creating and sustaining transformational change that will leave you with a new and fresh perspective on your ability to lead and drive your organization. Using his humble wit, real life experiences, and passion for driving to actionable solutions, Rick shares how transforming culture, gaining competitive advantage, and creating tangible benefit through change can be done quickly, cheaply, and almost painlessly if you take into account three simple, yet critical principles - First, you need to change not knowing into knowing; secondly, you must manage your knowledge like any other valued asset; and last but not least, it is essential to spend the time to properly prepare your organization for the change before you start. Rick sets the stage for how a leader like you can drive successful transformation. Rick did not have a "C" acronym in his title, and like many leaders, he was someone that wanted to make things better, but sometimes lacked the fancy title, authority, or significant resources to make it happen. The success he achieved in transforming enterprises is something that you can achieve if you understand his passion and leverage the tools he shares in this book.

The Gardner Heist Ulrich Boser,2009-02-19 The true story of one museum, two thieves, and the Boston underworld: “Boser cracks the cold case of the art world’s greatest unsolved mystery.” —Vanity Fair Shortly after midnight on March 18, 1990, two men broke into the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in Boston and committed the largest art heist in history. They stole a dozen masterpieces, including one Vermeer, three Rembrandts, and five Degas. But after thousands of leads, hundreds of interviews, and a $5 million reward, not a single painting has been recovered. Worth as much as half a billion dollars, the missing masterpieces have become the Holy Grail of the art world and their theft one of the nation’s most extraordinary unsolved mysteries. Art detective Harold Smith worked the theft for years, and after his death, reporter Ulrich Boser decided to pick up where he left off. Traveling deep into the art underworld, Boser explores Smith’s unfinished leads and comes across a remarkable cast of characters, including a brilliant rock ‘n’ roll art thief and a golden-boy gangster who professes his innocence in rhyming verse. A tale of greed, obsession, and loss, The Gardner Heist is as compelling as the stolen masterpieces themselves. “Captivating.” —The Wall Street Journal “A tantalizing whodunit.” —The Boston Globe

Radiance Danny Siegel,Joseph Telushkin,2020 The Selected Prose and Poetry of Danny Siegel This first anthology of the most important writings by Danny Siegel, spanning and renewing fifty years of his insights intersperses soulful Jewish texts with innovative Mitzvah ideas to rouse individuals and communities to transform our lives, communities, neighborhoods, and world. As a renowned teacher Siegel describes the creative--often startling--ways individuals from different walks of life have brought compassion into the world, recognizes them as Mitzvah heroes, and suggests how we can apply their life lessons. He also plumbs how giving enriches living and presents Jewishly informed best principles for doing more world repair (Tikkun Olam). As a scholar of rabbinic literature Siegel offers translations and commentaries on Jewish texts illuminating Tzedakah, values, caring, and leadership. In addition he tops off a half-century of his thought with five new essays reflecting on his visions for a better world. The selected poetry asks religious and theological questions in the face of oppression and war, gives voice to personal moments often neglected by ritual, and exults at the wonders of modern Israel and the revelation of love. Both inspirational and pragmatic, this anthology offers practical guidance on using Siegel's classic and novel works in personal living and in Jewish organizational settings. Ultimately, in exploring the dynamic interaction between heroes, texts, and ourselves, Siegel seeks to engage each of us in discovering our own radiant potential for creative Mitzvah living.

Living Room M. Christine Boyer,1999 This work describes a house designed by two architects, five artists and a poet. The house is in the medieval centre of Gelnhausen, near Frankfurt. It retains the scale and volume of the previous building on the site - a dilapidated 300-year-old timber structure - but differs from it in all other respects. The interior and exterior of the building present a continuous smooth surface, punctured with many openings. The interior consists of a single room open from the floor to the gable. Grass, olive trees and ivy are planted inside. Five metres above the ground, spanning between the two gable walls, is a box which contains a bedroom and supports a deck. A collaborative work, the houses addresses the public at large through the mediums of architecture, painting, photography, poetry, sculpture, light and noise.
