

Do Not Love Half Lovers Khalil Gibran

Paul Marcus

NEW BEGINNINGS NEVER END Dr. Robert Calderin,2025-02-25 This is my immortality project. My memory is starting to fail, and anyone who advances knows when the decline starts. I concluded that it is better to record my memories now than to wait until later and, possibly, forget it all. My story shares many peaks and valleys and describes my trespasses and the trespasses against me. Hopefully, it will help you grow. This is a tale about writing your own story, about punching above your weight class. Life is not really about second chances. It is about a life of ongoing fresh starts. Further, it's an acknowledgment that no one succeeds by themselves. There are always supporters who help encourage us to press forward along life's journey. In my case, I have been blessed with a litany of mentors who have supported my upward mobility now and in the past. They were angels who were heaven-sent. It is the only reason I can think of to explain why I have been able to restart over and over again. God has always sent angels to help us overcome challenges. It turns out I have been supported all my life even when I thought I wasn't. It's never been about me. Rather, it's been about the people I have served even when it resulted in betrayal. I learned that He always led me to the light to allow me a do-over to get it right. No one is perfect, but striving for perfection is a lifelong pursuit for the honorable. We all make mistakes. We say wrong things. We do wrong things. We fall, fail, get up, and win. We learn, we grow, we move on, and we live. Life is on a wheel; the good and the bad usually come around again and again. Prepare yourself for God's grace. I paid the cost to be the boss. So I know I have had a higher calling. Otherwise, why would I have been able to reboot my leadership roles so many times? God made me see that I had the inner strength to stand up for Him. Even now, despite all the heaviness I have felt in my heart from the pain in my life, I acknowledge I have had many more blessings. I am truly one of the fortunate ones. I am finally getting it and still aspire to serve Him and wish the same for you.

Don't Go Back to Sleep Paul E Calarco Jr.,2024-10-30 Dr. Paul presents an inspiring book that will invigorate both young dreamers and those in transitional periods seeking to find their True North. He pulls back the curtain on the motivational coaching game and has curated a wide range of perspectives along with a compilation of fantastic quotes as you travel between the two covers of this text. Whether you need a push to get going, a redirection or an affirmation that you are on the path...this book is for YOU!

Echoes of a Valley Wissam Moubarak,2025-07-28 A heartfelt journey into the profound and practical lessons of life, distilled from decades of real-world experience and wisdom.

The Feminisms of Our Mothers Daanika Kamal ,2024-01-20 'Some of our mothers marched the streets in the 1980s, demanding the emancipation of women. Three decades later, they accompanied their daughters to Aurat March, reflecting on past formations, present collectives and feminist futures. Some made concessions in their acceptance of traditional gender roles, forming conflictual relationships with daughters that pushed the boundaries of propriety. Some may not refer to themselves as feminist, differing from their daughters about the significance and implications of labels. Yet, the subtleties of our mothers' adaptabilities are centred on women's empowerment. Situated amongst these subtleties are moments of consciousness and selfdetermination that we, as daughters, navigate through, as we limn the contours of our own feminist formations.' In this remarkable collection of essays about their mothers, women from Pakistan explore the many meanings of feminism and its varying interpretations through generations. How, they ask, do these meanings change, mould, attract and detract within and between generations? How do women bridge the cracks that emerge in these formations as they hold within them the joys, sorrows, conflicts and contradictions of their multiple feminisms?

The Psychoanalysis of Career Choice, Job Performance, and Satisfaction Paul Marcus,2017-01-20 Freud said that love and work are the central therapeutic goals of psychoanalysis; the twin pillars for a sound mind and for living the good life. While psychoanalysis has masterfully contributed to understanding the experience of love, it has only made a modest contribution to understanding the psychology of work. This book is the first to explore fully the psychoanalysis of work, analysing career choice, job performance and job satisfaction, with an eye toward helping people make wiser choices that bring out the best in themselves, their colleagues and their organization. The book addresses the crucial questions concerning work: how does one choose the right career; what qualities contribute to excellence in performance; how best to implement and cope with organizational change; and what capacity and skills does one need to enjoy every day work? Drawing on psychoanalytic thinking, vocational counseling, organizational psychology and business studies, The Psychoanalysis of Career Choice, Job Performance, and Satisfaction will be invaluable in clinical psychoanalytic work, as well as for mental health professionals, scholars, career counselors and psychologists looking for a deeper understanding of work-based issues.
