The Handbook of Global Interventions in Communication Theory Yoshitaka Miike, Jing Yin, 2022-03-10 Moving beyond the U.S.-Eurocentric paradigm of communication theory, this handbook broadens the intellectual horizons of the discipline by highlighting underrepresented, especially non-Western, theorists and theories, and identifies key issues and challenges for future scholarship. Showcasing diverse perspectives, the handbook facilitates active engagement in different cultural traditions and theoretical orientations that are global in scope but local in effect. It begins by exploring past efforts to diversify the field, continuing on to examine theoretical concepts, models, and principles rooted in local cumulative wisdom. It does not limit itself to the mass-interpersonal communication divide, but rather seeks to frame theory as global and inclusive in scope. The book is intended for communication researchers and advanced students, with relevance to scholars with an interest in theory within information science, library science, social and cross-cultural psychology, multicultural education, social justice and social ethics, international relations, development studies, and political science.

Networks, society, and polis: epistemological approaches on mediatization Jairo Ferreira, Pedro Gilberto Gomes, Antonio Fausto Neto, José Luiz Braga, Ana Paula da Rosa, Wilson Gomes, Vera V. França, Muniz Sodré, Göran Bolin, Ilya Kiriya, Rita Figueiras, Magali do Nascimento Cunha, Ada C. Machado da Silveira, Mario Carlón, 2020-12-08 This book is one of the results of the II International Seminar on Research on Mediatization and Social Processes. The II International Seminar on Research on Mediatization and Social Processes had a program developed at two levels: Debate panels, with invited researchers – five tables with the participation of researchers from Sweden (1), Russia (1), Portugal (1), Argentina (1), and Brazil (6). The schedule of the II Seminar and its structure are available at <https://www.midiaticom.org/seminario-mediatizacao/grade-de-programacao-2018/>. In total, there were 15 hours of debates at the five debate panels. This second event gave continuity to the first International Seminar on Research on Mediatization and Social Processes, which also had guest researchers. In the first seminar, the five panels were attended by researchers from France (3), Denmark (1), Argentina (2), and Brazil (4). See: <http://www.midiaticom.org/seminariointernacional/programacao-2016/>. Therefore, methodologically, the Seminar takes place in the articulation of debate panels with international guests and working groups, with the presence of researchers, doctors, doctoral students, Masters, and master's degree students. We emphasize that, still in the scope of training processes, master's and doctoral students, masters and doctors, post-doctoral students and post-doctors, and members of the organizing Research Group take part in them as reviewers, in a blind evaluation, of the expanded abstracts submitted by graduates with lower titles – under the coordination of researchers/professors of the Research Group on Mediatization and Social Processes. They evaluated (in a group of more than three dozen reviewers) each of the works submitted by colleagues with training at a lower level, with classification grades, which resulted in the approved papers. Then, they were grouped by the organizing committee, successively, until the event's working groups were formed. A total of 237 abstracts were submitted. They were selected in the following proportion of participants: 21% of professors/researchers; 33% doctors and doctoral students; 33% masters and master's students; 13% graduates and undergraduate students, linked to scientific initiation research project and/or with research results of a senior research project. In the first seminar, in 2016, there were 250 submissions by authors and 217 expanded abstracts. Out of these, around 188 works were selected. At both events, half of the participants were from universities in other states (São Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, and Minas Gerais, mainly). Among its results, in addition to the training processes in the course of its realization, we emphasize its consolidation in a library of reflections, in the form of complete articles of the presentations in Working Groups and books published in e-book format (with chapters produced by the participants of the debate panels). The expanded abstracts of the event are available at <https://midiaticom.org/anais/index.php/seminario-midiatizacao-resumos>. The full articles are available at <https://midiaticom.org/anais/index.php/seminario-midiatizacao-artigos>. This book of the Debate Panels of the II Seminar, in this e-book edition, is available not only in the project collection (<https://www.midiaticom.org/e-books/>) but also at FACOS UFSM (<https://www.ufsm.br/editoras/facos/publicacoes/>). We reiterate our thanks to CAPES and FAPERGS for the financial support, which is essential for to enable this proposal of conversation via research, both theoretical and empirical, carried out by its participants.

Mediations North and South: Epistemological and Empirical Perspectives from Sweden and Brazil Göran Bolin, Jairo Ferreira, Isabel Löfgren, Ada Machado da Silva, 2025-01-22 Between 2019 and 2023, media researchers from Södertörn University in UNISINOS and Universidade Federal de Santa Maria (UFSM) in Brazil, engaged in a collaborative effort to explore Scandinavian and South American perspectives on mediation, connecting universities from opposite sides of the world. Sweden, the project aimed to promote a nuanced understanding of mediation theory from different cultural perspectives and media studies traditions, dismantle epistemological barriers, and provide new insights into societies undergoing the process of mediation. The chapters presented in this volume are grounded on the mobility of researchers across both countries where a productive knowledge exchange contributed to diversify epistemological, empirical, and methodological approaches to mediation theory, and provide new perspectives on mediation theory in contested media scenarios in Sweden, Brazil, and beyond.

Between what we say and what we think: Where is mediatization? Jairo Ferreira, José Luiz Braga, Pedro Gilberto Gomes, Antônio Fausto Neto, Ana Paula da Rosa, Daniel Peraya, Bernard Miège, Mário Carlón, Lucrécia Ferrara, Stefan Bratosin, Luis Mauro Sa Martino, Stig Hjarvard, Muniz Sodré, Oscar Traversa, Giovandro Ferreira, 2018-12-21

On the Corposphere José Enrique Finol, 2021-06-08 The book presents and analyzes some of the most important issues related to the body seen as a rich and complex anthropological and semiotic object, capable of playing a decisive role in the meaning making processes of cultural and social life. The analysis presented in this book opens a whole set of new venues for the study of body performances and representations, and shows how the embodiment of social and cultural life shape our world. In all of its relationships and in itself, our body works in a sort of corposphere, which is, in turn, part of the semiosphere, defined by Lotman as a continuum occupied by different types of semiotic formations. It is from/in/by the body that all semiosis begins and ends; it is in its presence and absence, in its being and in its presentation amidst the lived situational life where we might discover and shape the senses of the world. Many different academic fields will find in this book deep insights about how the body is at the center of cultural and social processes.

Mediatized Sapiens - Communicational Knowledge in the Constitution of the Species Jairo Ferreira, Lucrécia D'Alessio Ferrara, Ciro Marcondes, José Luiz Braga, Sandra Massoni, Eneus Trindade, Göran Bolin, Mario Carlón, José Luiz Aidar Prado, Ana Paula da Rosa, Pedro Gilberto Gomes, Michael Forsman, Igor Sacramento, Antonio Fausto Neto, This book results from the IV International Seminar on Research on Mediatization and Social Processes held in 2020/2021. The III International Seminar on Research on Mediatization and Social Processes had a program developed on two levels: debate panels with invited researchers (5 panels, with the participation of researchers from Sweden(2), Argentina (2), and Brazil (9, including five from PPGCC-Unisinos). The IV Seminar program and its structure are at <https://www.midiaticom.org/seminario-midiatizacao/programacao-2020/>. In this IV Seminar, the theme of the panels was "Mediatized Sapiens: the social construction of knowledge among interactions, means, circulation, and social mediation." With mediatized sapiens, we want to refer to several media processes related to the mental changes of the species. Several questions can be enunciated related to these. How can we think of knowledge social construction when mediated by the media processes? To what extent does the mental experience of the species hold media processes as references to its building and inferences? How do the actors in a network participate in these processes? To what extent do institutions and organizations adapt to these new environments? In particular, how do the University, research, and scientific fields participate in this repair? Do the media in digital media, in action through expert systems and artificial intelligence, interpose themselves in these processes to the point of asking incisive and secondary questions? How do temporalities and spatiality affect the conditions of production and reception, including social practices, in the social production of knowledge? What epistemologies and methodologies can account for this new complexity amid indetermination and uncertainty zones?

Comics and Migration Ralf Kauranen, Olli Löytty, Aura Nikkilä, Anna Vuorinne, 2023-03-31 Comics and human mobility have a long history of connections. This volume explores these entanglements with a focus on both how comics represent migration and what applied uses comics have in relation to migration. The volume examines both individual works of comic art and examples of practical applications of comics from across the world. Comics are well-suited to create understanding, highlight truthful information, and engender empathy in their audiences, but are also an art form that is preconditioned or even limited by its representational and practical conventions. Through analyses of various practices and representations, this book questions the uncritical belief in the capacity of comics, assesses their potential to represent stories of exile and immigration with compassion, and discusses how xenophobia and nationalism are both reinforced and questioned in comics. The book includes essays by both researchers and practitioners such as activists and journalists whose work has combined a focus on comics and migration. It predominantly scrutinises comics and activities from more peripheral areas such as the Nordic region, the German-language countries, Latin America, and southern Asia to analyse the treatment and visual representation of migration in these regions. This topical and engaging volume in the Global Perspectives in Comics Studies series will be of interest to researchers and students of comics studies, literary studies, visual art studies, cultural studies, migration, and sociology. It will also be useful reading for a wider academic audience interested in discourses around global migration and comics traditions.

Entre o que se diz e o que se pensa: onde está a mediação? Onde está a mediação? Jairo Ferreira, Ana Paula da Rosa, Antônio Fausto Neto, José Luiz Braga, Pedro Gilberto Gomes, Daniel Peraya, Bernard Miège, Mario Carlón, Lucrécia D'Alessio Ferrara, Stefan Bratosin, Luís Mauro Sá Martino, Stig Hjarvard, Muniz Sodré, Oscar Traversa, Giovandro Marcus Ferreira, Antonio Fausto Neto, 2018-12-20 Este livro é resultado de um longo processo de interlocução, anterior, concomitante e posterior à realização do I Seminário Internacional de Pesquisas em Mediação e Processos Sociais, no PPGCC-Unisinos, com apoio da Capes e do CNPq. Anterior, porque nasceu de vários projetos de cooperação, mobilidade e interação com pesquisadores convidados, do Brasil e do exterior. Concomitante, porque os convidados participaram intensamente não só das mesas de conferências e debates, mas também dos Grupos de Trabalho formados a partir das submissões de trabalho ao Evento. Posterior, porque resulta de um processo editorial que busca atender aos critérios de qualidade de obras coletivas na área. Os artigos foram escritos após o evento, tendo-se solicitado aos autores que dialogassem com os debates ali ocorridos, qualificando suas intervenções. O Seminário Internacional contou com a participação de duas centenas de pesquisadores. É organizado em dois níveis. No primeiro nível – as mesas –, busca-se um movimento reflexivo descendente, com pesquisadores 12 Entre o que se diz e o que se pensa: onde está a mediação? convidados, brasileiros e do exterior, e os pesquisadores vinculados ao PPGCC-Unisinos, da Linha de Pesquisa Mediação e Processos Sociais. Outro movimento é ascendente. Os

La semiosis social Eliseo Verón, 2020-09-14 Creer que los objetos estudiados por la sintaxis y por la semántica son los mismos que los sujetos hablantes utilizan en un plano pretendidamente pragmático, es un error epistemológico fundado en el desconocimiento de la naturaleza construida de los objetos científicos. Este error, como se ve, está en la base de la teoría de los actos del lenguaje. En este libro se habla de ello y se extiende a otras áreas.

La semiosis social, 2 Eliseo Verón, 2013 Veinticinco años atrás, Eliseo Verón sorprendió al mundo académico con un estudio que marcó un mojón en los estudios de comunicación: La semiosis social. Transcurridos cinco lustros, el autor vuelve a sorprender con nuevas conclusiones teóricas a partir de las investigaciones realizadas a lo largo de este período sobre el campo de algunas de las problemáticas de la comunicación (los discursos de la prensa gráfica, la comunicación política, publicitaria e institucional, el funcionamiento de las marcas comerciales, los discursos sobre el cuerpo y la salud, la discursividad de la televisión, la imagen fotográfica, los espacios públicos, etc.). Verón abarca sus análisis en función de la experiencia acumulada y de los viejos interrogantes (dónde se coloca al actor social, quién es y dónde se ubica el observador, cómo se articulan los comportamientos con la comunicación). A ello les suma nuevas obsesiones: cómo construir un modelo materialista no reduccionista de los procesos mentales; dónde se produce el cambio social; cómo se configura, en definitiva, la semiosis. Y por último, da cuenta de los nuevos instrumentos: la dimensión de la historia, sin la cual no se entiende nada de lo que nos ocurre hoy, y dada la escala temporal, lo que está en juego cuando uno se interesa en la semiosis. En definitiva, La semiosis social, 2 llega para establecer un nuevo modelo en el desarrollo de los estudios comunicacionales, de cara al futuro. --Contratapa.
