Choose Love Stormie Omartian, 2014-09-01 Stormie Omartian's bestselling books on the power of prayer have touched millions of lives. Recent books have taken a closer look at the leading of the Holy Spirit and the call to be a prayer warrior for God. Now Stormie takes a fresh look at another powerful aspect of knowing our Creator...His amazing and great love for us. We reflect God most clearly when we are motivated by the power of love in all we say and do. But first we have to understand the depth of God's love for us and receive it. Then we must learn how to effectively express our love for Him. "One of the many ways we can show our love to God is to deliberately choose to show love to others and in every situation," says Stormie. "We can only accomplish this with the guidance and enablement of the Holy Spirit. When we do that, God blesses us and transforms our lives in ways we cannot even imagine. And we will have a sense of God's pleasure toward us that is far more valuable than anything else we may desire. This book is about making that sometimes difficult choice and the rewards that follow." Transform your heart, your relationships, and your future as you press into God's love and let the power of His life and character move through you.

How to Make Feeling Good Your Priority Holly Rouillard Johnson, 2021-02-10 Holly Rouillard Johnson's path to make feeling good a priority manifested in her childhood and high school years. She discovered running, which led her on a twenty-seven-time marathon journey starting at age thirty-four. She credits her accomplishments in racing and life to her feel-good mentality, including a proven formula on sustaining a feel-good state for as long as possible both along marathon courses and life's paths. Throughout the years, her commitment to feeling good led her to coaching and helping others adapt more positive mindsets and helping her heal and overcome injuries and balance the demands of professional and running careers along with family and other interests. It also fueled her courage to deal with adversity as an athlete and in life. This feel-good commitment enables her to embrace every setback as an opportunity to learn, grow, and evolve, principles and practices she shares in How to Make Feeling Good Your Priority. Shifting the law of attraction in a positive direction, Johnson gives practical advice, guiding you in making the right choices and shifting how you approach your day by thinking and focusing on what will make you feel good and happy. Johnson insists you can choose how you want to feel around your kids, your spouse, at work, at the gym, on a run, or simply how you approach each day. When you feel good, the world seems like a better place.

I Choose to Believe Carol A. Reid, 2002-03 Love blossoms between a young Jewish doctor named Ben and Danae', a Christian student nurse when they meet under colliding circumstances. When Ben takes the woman he has fallen in love with to meet his family, they are not only faced with Danae's deepest fears, but it brings to a head a lifelong underlying friction between Ben and his father, Daniel. Ben is now faced with difficult choices between His love for Danae' and the extent of what he is willing to do in order to help heal deep hurts. His encounter with truth as he seeks to seal his relationship with Danae' in marriage leads him into unexpected and mysterious paths. Danae' must now put into practice that which is commanded of every believer-the command to forgive. Her strong Christian values and trust in God enable her to lovingly confront Ben with the possibility that there is a hidden pain that his father could be carrying that has caused his inability to respond to and express love to his sons. Although faced with the reality that marriage to Ben might not be in God's sovereign plan, because they are unequally yoked, she continues in the relationship and is encouraged by the warmth extended by Ben's mother Miriam.

Choose Love Not Power Tony Campolo, 2009-12-24 The God who set aside power in order to live out love--fully expressing that love on Calvary's tree--is at the core of the Christian message to the world. Yet in the centuries since Christ's refusal to yield to Satan's temptation to establish his kingdom through economic, political, and religious power, the Church has struggled to make the same refusal. In Choose Love Not Power, scholar, activist, and modern-day prophet Tony Campolo explores the relationship between love and power, beginning with an examination of Jesus' life and working toward a theology of power for Christians today. He surveys the implications of choosing love over power when it comes to the global community's most pressing issues--environmental degradation, economic inequality and instability, and perpetual war. Dr. Campolo suggests that the choice between love and power begins close to home: Christ-followers who choose love over power in marriage and in parenting will likewise opt for love in their churches, communities, and governments. The growing number of believers seeking a more authentically Christlike way to be Christian in a diverse, pluralistic society will be challenged and encouraged by this unflinching look at Jesus's example of love.

Why I Choose to Love You John Clinton Jr., 2007-02 In scripture, the manifestation of love is exhibited in various ways, such as the love between husband and wife, parent and child, friend and enemy, and the greatest love relationship between God and humankind. However, none of these loving relationships can be sustained without God's grace. Often in life, humans experience the emotional roller coaster of falling in and out of love in their relationships with others. Throughout my book, the reader will develop a deeper understanding of God's love. He or she will also: Develop a deeper understanding of how God's love is the bridge between Him and His people. Receive guidelines for developing healthy and true love relationships with others. Identify godly qualities for true love in any relationship. Be challenged to cultivate a regenerated heart, enabling him or her to see others as God sees them. Be motivated to show love to others regardless of past offenses.
