Los intocables Jorge Zepeda Patterson,2008 Los intocables documenta las historias de diez personajes que gracias a su poder, fama o riqueza, viven al margen de la justicia. Políticos, celebridades, empresarios y servidores públicos que han logrado salir indemnes de sonoros escándalos, protegidos por un manto de impunidad que lejos de acotar sus privilegios, los referenda. En el complejo entramado político y social de este país han crecido, fértiles y robustos, personajes como Emilio Gamboa, actual coordinador del PRI en la Cámara de Diputados; Juan Sandoval Íñiguez, líder espiritual de la derecha ultraconservadora; José Luis Soberanes, presidente de la Comisión Nacional de Derechos Humanos, aliado del gobierno y garante de algunos intocables; Jorge Hank Rhon, ex alcalde de Tijuana y miembro de uno de los clanes políticos más poderosos además del ostentoso propietario de casinos; Diego Fernández, millonario abogado gracias a su doble carácter de miembro del Estado y litigante en exitosas demandas contra el erario público; Marta Sahagún y los Bribiesca quienes hicieron del tráfico de influencias su fuente de enriquecimiento; Víctor González Torres, el Doctor Simi, dueño de un oscuro imperio farmacéutico; Pati Chapoy y Julio César Chávez, celebridades amparadas tras la fama y el poder mediático. Ninguna descripción de la ilegalidad quedaria completa sin los gobernadores, como el Góber Precioso (Puebla), el Góber Piadoso (Jalisco), el Góber Bailador (Coahuila), entre otros, grandes beneficiarios de la fragmentación del Estado mexicano. El principio del fin de la impunidad consiste en asegurarse de que estas infamias no sean ignoradas. Este libro escudriña los secretos nunca dichos sobre estos personajes que se han sabido, hasta hoy... intocables.--Back cover.

La homosexualidad masculina en la narrativa ecuatoriana Pedro Artieda,2003

Teoría torcida Ricardo Llamas,1998 La homosexualidad, nos dice el autor, es una expresión que sólo puede escribirse entre comillas. A lo largo de las páginas de este libro, para sorpresa de propios y extraños, cualesquiera de las supuestas evidencias que la caracterizan son puestas en cuestión una detrás de otra. Esta «teoría torcida» se aparta de cualquier convencionalismo al uso para demostrar que esa «homosexualidad» no es más que un elemento del sistema de sexualidad y género vigente. Un elemento clave, eso sí. Ideología y política; poder y resistencia intervienen en su cambiante definición. Con rigor y sentido común, los razonamientos desarrollados consiguen hacer tambalear las más arraigadas convicciones sobre lo bueno, lo natural, lo legal o lo ético en el amplio espectro de cuestiones relativas a las identidades, las pasiones y los cuerpos. Este sorprendente e inesperado trabajo sobre los significados y las implicaciones de «la homosexualidad» permite asimismo poner en evidencia el carácter convencional de otras tantas nociones consideradas evidentes. Entre ellas: el placer y el deseo, la familia y los compromisos afectivos, las libertades y los derechos individuales, la integración y la justicia social, la moralidad y la tolerancia, la salud y el bienestar físico y psicológico... Todas estas ideas forman parte de un régimen de sexualidad cuyo fundamento excluyente es aquí desmenuzado. Esta obra constituye, pues, un instrumento básico para la comprensión de dicho régimen e imprescindible para cualquier iniciativa que aspire a su reformulación.
