Practice Guide for CLEP Principles of Microeconomics Avatar Virtual Learning, 2017-05-29 Testing out of college courses using programs like the College Level Examination Program (CLEP) can provide students with college credit for subjects that they have not studied on a college campus but have mastered by other means (independent study, on-the-job training, and previous coursework) and it will save time and money. But how will a student know if this approach is right for them? This guide is intended to answer that question for students who are interested in taking CLEP's Principles of Microeconomics. It provides general information on the CLEP program along with suggestions on how to preparing for the exam. There is a subject breakdown of Principles of Microeconomics exam, the topics that will be covered and a list of online resources which can be used to study or review these topics. There are two practice tests; each is structured like the official exam with 80 multiple choice questions. Each practice test comes with an answer key and an explanation section on the reason why each answer is the right one.

*Testimonials*I bought you principles of macroeconomics and I passed with the highest score I have ever had on a clep and I need a stats study guide that can do the same thing. Thanks for your time, your material was worth more than I paid for it! - Mike B. I just wanted to drop you guys a line and tell you that I passed my final CLEP exam last Monday which gives me all of the credits I need to graduate. I have taken 30 credits worth of CLEP exams and I've passed them all by using your study guides. I actually purchased one of your study guides and failed my first test. I didn't fail because of your guide though, I failed because I didn't manage my time effectively and I ran short. I looked at your study guide after failing though, and a lot of the information on your study guide was very relevant to what was on the test. So, I tried again with a different test and a different study guide of yours. I passed. This pattern continues for 30 credits. I graduate on June 9th thanks to you guys, so I wanted to say thank you. The guides were worth every penny. Thanks, -John S.
