Aragón antiguo Universidad de Zaragoza,2013 This monograph is the result of a project developed with the help of the Government of Aragon, who collaborated in three research groups at the University of Zaragoza: Hiberus (H08), Latinos and Computer Texts (H19) and Urbs (H09). The work is thus a dialogue between specialists alluding to the ancient testimonies of the Ebro valley (core current Aragon) and its environs: border area in antiquity between cultural elements (Iberian, Celtic, vascónicos) whose interaction resulted to exciting transformation processes. The geography and ethnography, the roads, the literary, epigraphic sources- paleohispánicas and Latinas, the -indigenous and provincial coinage romanas- aspects are analyzed from a multidisciplinary approach that offers a state of affairs which is valid for scholars and interested in the Ancient World.
