Pokémon Elizabeth Hollinger, 2003 Describes the Ruby and Sapphire Pokémon and how to beat Team Aqua and Team Magma.

Who Are You? Alex Custodio, 2020-10-13 Celebrate Nintendo's Game Boy Advance in this video game history that traces the handheld's network of hardware and software afterlives! In 2002, Nintendo of America launched an international marketing campaign for the Game Boy Advance that revolved around the slogan "Who Are You?"—asking potential buyers which Nintendo character, game, or even device they identified with and attempting to sell a new product by exploiting players' nostalgic connections to earlier ones. Today, nearly 2 decades after its release, and despite the development of newer and more powerful systems, Nintendo's Game Boy Advance lives on, through a community that continues to hack, modify, emulate, make, break, remake, redesign, trade, use, love, and play with the platform. In Who Are You?, Alex Custodio considers each component of this network—hardware, software, peripheral, or practice—to illuminate the platform's unique features as a computational system and a cultural artifact. You'll learn about:

- The evolution of Nintendo's handhelds and consoles, and how they embed nostalgia into the hardware
- Nintendo's expansion of the Game Boy Advance platform through interoperability
- Physical and affective engagement with the Game Boy Advance
- Portability, private space, and social interaction
- The platformization of nostalgia
- Fan-generated content including homebrew, hacking, and hardware modding
- And much more!

Although the Game Boy Advance is neither the most powerful nor the most popular of Nintendo's handhelds, Custodio argues, it is the platform that most fundamentally embodies Nintendo's reliance on the aesthetics and materiality of nostalgia.

The Routledge Handbook of Fan Video and Digital Authorship Louisa Ellen Stein, Samantha Close, 2025-10-31 This cutting-edge collection explores the histories, aesthetics, and cultural work of fan video across a wide variety of manifestations and genres. Editors Louisa Ellen Stein and Samantha Close have assembled an edited collection that showcases the aesthetic diversity and transcultural dynamics at play in fan video as a widespread form. The collection explores the relationships between fan video as a set of DIY subcultural authorship forms and the broader evolving popular cultures of digital media, looking at how fan video structures and aesthetics influence other popular and commercial forms of digital video. In order to do so, it examines a wide range of fan video genres and practices, including vidding, reaction videos, self-insert TikToks, ASMR videos, Let's Play videos, streams, Bilibili videos, gif loops, fan films, crack videos, animatics, collection videos, deepfakes, fake trailers, and fan video essays, among others. It features chapters by a range of scholars working in the intersecting fields of digital media studies, fan studies, media studies, cultural studies, audience studies, video game studies, transcultural studies, and videographic studies. A field-defining collection, this Handbook will be of interest to students and scholars of digital media studies, fan studies, media studies, cultural studies, videographic studies, and beyond.
