Le Corbusier's Maison Curutchet Alejandro Lapunzina, 1997 One of his very few built projects in the Americas, Maison Curutchet is a fascinating representation of Le Corbusier's stylistic transitional period, bridging his late 1920s purism and the maturity of his later work in India. Like Casa Malaparte, this book offers an in-depth analysis of a single building through original documents, drawings, and photographs.

Arquitectura y género Mónica Cavedio, 2003 Esta investigación trata de ser una reflexión crítica sobre la concepción androcéntrica dominante en la Historia de la Arquitectura Occidental. Para ello he querido manifestar el vínculo entre arquitectura, género y política; entrelazándolos para analizar la idea de espacio. Se trata de repensar el espacio bajo una nueva mirada, la del género, es decir, a través de las diferencias culturales entre hombres y mujeres, ya que como sexo se entiende las diferencias biológicas. Este libro trata de ir contra la pasividad y el silencio impuestos a las mujeres, procurando así destruir “ideológicamente” el lugar y espacio que éstas ocupan, lugar impuesto con un proceso ideológico, transmitido por los hombres a la humanidad, a través de la cultura, el arte y la arquitectura, entre otras manifestaciones. Si bien el espacio no tiene sexo, su valoración se hace a través de quien hace uso de él; el espacio no es neutral y denota quién y cómo lo ocupa, además de estar relacionado con el poder económico, cultural y social. Mónica Cebedio es arquitecta por la facultad de Arquitectura y Urbanismo de la Universidad Nacional de la Plata, y doctora por la Universidad Politécnica de Cataluña.

Cruelty and Utopia Jean-François Lejeune, Centre international pour la ville, l'architecture et le paysage, 2005-02-03 This landmark collection of illustrated essays explores the vastly underappreciated history of America's other cities -- the great metropolises found south of our borders in Central and South America. Buenos Aires, So Paulo, Mexico City, Caracas, Havana, Santiago, Rio, Tijuana, and Quito are just some of the subjects of this diverse collection. How have desires to create modern societies shaped these cities, leading to both architectural masterworks (by the likes of Luis Barragn, Juan O'Gorman, Lcio Costa, Roberto Burle Marx, Carlos Ral Villanueva, and Lina Bo Bardi) and the most shocking favelas? How have they grappled with concepts of national identity, their colonial history, and the continued demands of a globalized economy? Lavishly illustrated, Cruelty and Utopia features the work of such leading scholars as Carlos Fuentes, Edward Burian, Lauro Cavalcanti, Fernando Oayrzn, Roberto Segre, and Eduardo Subirats, along with artwork ranging from colonial paintings to stills from Chantal Akerman's film From the Other Side. Also included is a revised translation of Spanish King Philip II's influential planning treatise of 1573, the Laws of the Indies, which did so much to define the form of the Latin American city.

International Design Organizations Jeremy Aynsley, Alison J. Clarke, Tania Messell, 2022-01-13 This innovative volume brings together international design scholars to address the history and present-day status of national and international design organizations, working across design disciplines and located in countries including Argentina, Turkey, Estonia, Switzerland, Italy, China and the USA. In the second half of the 20th century, many non-governmental organizations were created to address urgent cultural, economic and welfare issues. Design organizations set out to create an international consensus for the future direction of design. This included enhancing communication between professionals, educators and practitioners, raising standards for design, and creating communities of designers across linguistic, national and political borders. Shared needs and agendas were identified and categories of design constantly defined and re-defined, often with overt cultural and political intents. Drawing on an impressive range of original research, archival sources and oral testimony, this volume questions the aims and achievements of national and international design organizations in light of their subsequent histories and their global remits. The Cold War period is central to the book, while many chapters draw on post-colonial perspectives to interpret how transnational networks and negotiations took place at events and congresses, and through publication.

Construyendo identidades en el lugar Rueda, Carlos,Rodríguez, Juan Luís,2013-08-08 Sendas de la modernidad ha sido concebida como una serie abierta de publicaciones que ofrece una mirada comprensiva a los procesos de diversificación de las tradiciones modernas en arquitectura y ciudad. Académicamente estamos situados en la convergencia disciplinar de la historia y teoría de la arquitectura, la crítica cultural y social, y en un sentido amplio, los estudios del paisaje cultural. La investigación que soporta el seguimiento a las Sendas de la modernidad se apoya en técnicas diversas tales como la historia oral, el análisis (estético) de obras en su experiencia directa, la interpretación de dibujos y documentos varios que contribuyan a entender, descifrando significados y valores, la construcción del rico y complejo paisaje cultural de las ciudades y entornos construidos contemporáneos.
