Media and Food Industries Michelle Phillipov, 2017-09-20 This volume is the first to combine textual analysis of food media texts with interviews with media production staff, reality TV contestants, celebrity chefs, and food producers and retailers across the artisan-conventional spectrum. Intensified media interest in food has seen food politics become a dominant feature of popular media—from television and social media to cookbooks and advertising. This is often thought to be driven by consumers and by new ethics of consumption, but Media and Food Industries reveals how contemporary food politics is also being shaped by political and economic imperatives within the media and food industries. It explores the behind-the-scenes production dynamics of contemporary food media to assess the roles of—and relationships between—media and food industries in shaping new concerns and meanings with respect to food.

There are many books aimed at telling women how to get the man of their dreams--but remarkably few that give men advice on attracting the women they want. Paul Kerton's book is packed with invaluable tips on meeting, dating (and bedding) the most desirable women. It's for every man who has spotted a beautiful girl across a crowded room at a party, in the office--even walking down the street--but has lacked the confidence to approach her.
