Technique and Sensibility in the Fiction and Poetry of Raymond Carver Arthur F. Bethea, 2001 First Published in 2002. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company.

The Hydra's Tale R. Rawdon Wilson, 2002-05 Imagine a disgusting experience. Now think about your response. What was it about the moment that made you turn your head, that led your lip to curl and nose to wrinkle? Disgust has many triggers, some obvious, others less so. What disgusts us is never irrevocably fixed and certain. It changes from culture to culture and even, at times, within a culture. This fluidity makes the term disgust at once deadly simple and extremely complex. In The Hydra's Tale, Robert Rawdon Wilson treats the experience of disgust: not from the perspective of the disgusting object-in-the-world, but from its representation. Disgust marks either a slip over the border of the socially sanctioned or a struggle to keep someone or something from crossing that border. Working through the spectrum of human response, culture, and art, Wilson teases out the assumptions that underpin the disgust response.

Haruki Murakami and the Search for Self-Therapy Jonathan Dil, 2022-02-24 Haruki Murakami, a global literary phenomenon, has said that he started writing fiction as a means of self-therapy. What he has not discussed as much is what he needed self-therapy for. This book argues that by understanding more about why Murakami writes, and by linking this with the question of how he writes, readers can better understand what he writes. Murakami's fiction, in other words, can be read as a search for self-therapy. In five chapters which explore Murakami's fourteen novels to date, this book argues that there are four prominent therapeutic threads woven through Murakami's fiction that can be traced back to his personal traumas - most notably Murakami's falling out with his late father and the death of a former girlfriend - and which have also transcended them in significant ways as they have been transformed into literary fiction. The first thread looks at the way melancholia must be worked through for mourning to occur and healing to happen; the second thread looks at how symbolic acts of sacrifice can help to heal intergenerational trauma; the third thread looks at the way people with avoidant attachment styles can begin to open themselves up to love again; the fourth thread looks at how individuation can manifest as a response to nihilism. Meticulously researched and written with sensitivity, the result is a sophisticated exploration of Murakami's published novels as an evolving therapeutic project that will be of great value to all scholars of Japanese literature and culture.

The Art of Revision Peter Ho Davies, 2021-11-02 The fifteenth volume in the Art of series takes an expansive view of revision—on the page and in life In The Art of Revision: The Last Word, Peter Ho Davies takes up an often discussed yet frequently misunderstood subject. He begins by addressing the invisibility of revision—even though it's an essential part of the writing process, readers typically only see a final draft, leaving the practice shrouded in mystery. To combat this, Davies pulls examples from his novels The Welsh Girl and The Fortunes, as well as from the work of other writers, including Flannery O'Connor, Carmen Machado, and Raymond Carver, shedding light on this slippery subject. Davies also looks beyond literature to work that has been adapted or rewritten, such as books made into films, stories rewritten by another author, and the practice of retconning in comics and film. In an affecting frame story, Davies recounts the story of a violent encounter in his youth, which he then retells over the years, culminating in a final telling at the funeral of his father. In this way, the book arrives at an exhilarating mode of thinking about revision—that it is the writer who must change, as well as the writing. The result is a book that is as useful as it is moving, one that asks writers to reflect upon themselves and their writing.

So, what Kept You? Claire Malcolm, Margaret Wilkinson, 2006 'So What Kept You?' brings together 14 of some of the most exciting writers from the UK, USA and Eastern Europe in a celebration of the influence of two short-story masters - Anton Chekhov and Raymond Carver.

Bridging the Gap J. M. Q. Davies, 1994 The volume is intended as a contribution to what is increasingly being recognized as the need for more systematic professional dialogue about the practical pedagogic difficulties the advent of theory has created.

Guided by Voices Ugo Rondinone, Kunsthhaus Glarus, 1999 Echoing Rimbaud's Je suis un autre, Swiss artist Ugo Rondinone uses the question of identity as a main theme in his multimedia creations. His works are a balancing act of ambiguities -- from art to commerce, the fashionably hip to melancholic withdrawal, seduction to rejection. Exemplifying these undercurrents are his photomontages, in which he superimposes his face onto the bodies of famous models in sometimes elegant, sometimes lascivious poses. This book documents Rondinone's activity over the past six years, presenting a variety of works -- diary entries in the style of underground comics; videos capturing the banality of everyday life; hypnotizing circle pictures; clowns; hermetic spatial installations; and monumental brush and ink landscape pictures.

Asian Art News ,2009

Wise Economies Kirk Curnutt,1997 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for the University of Idaho Press

The author departs from traditional genre criticism, presenting a central argument that can be read two ways: from a rhetorical perspective, in which each part examines the interpretive work that a specific narrative device demands within a set of exemplary texts; and from a historical perspective, in which each part emphasizes the contextual function of these devices by examining the stories as expressions of the four most prominent narrative styles that developed between the early nineteenth century and the 1980s--romanticism, realism, modernism, and minimalism.

Twentieth-century Short Story Explication Warren S. Walker,Barbara K. Walker,1992 This long-running reference series indexes interpretations written in major Western European languages since 1900 of short stories published since 1800. The original series -- Twentieth-Century Short Story Explication, Third Edition, edited by Warren S. Walker -- is indexed and available in seven volumes and covers 16,691 stories by 2,304 authors. The New Series, edited by Wendell Aycock, does not duplicate or compete with this coverage. It is a new series, with a slightly altered format, which begins where the old one leaves off.

Embracing the Beat of Expression: An Mental Symphony within So Much Water So Close To Home

In a world taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant transmission, the melodic elegance and mental symphony developed by the written word frequently diminish in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless noise and distractions that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of So Much Water So Close To Home an enchanting literary prize overflowing with organic emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding musician of language, that charming masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this touching evaluation, we shall discover the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing type, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.

web in particular you can use the bert model to convert documents to feature vectors which you can then use as inputs to train a deep learning classification network p n p dir auto the example a href matlab deep learning transformer models blob master classifytextdatausingbert m code a

electrical transformer matlab

simulink mathworks - Jul 14 2023

web electrical transformer this example shows how to model a transformer using fundamental magnetic library blocks the transformer is rated 50w 60 hz 120v 12v and assumed to have an efficiency of 94 no load magnetizing current of 1 and a leakage reactance of 2 3

power converters matlab simulink

mathworks - Mar 10 2023

web converters topics introducing power electronics learn how to use power electronics and transformers and vary circuit initial conditions thyristor based static var compensator model a static var compensator svc using three thyristor switched capacitor banks tsc and one thyristor controlled reactor bank tcr gto based statcom linear transformer simulink - Jun 13 2023 web the linear transformer block model shown consists of three coupled windings wound on the same core the model takes into account the winding resistances  $r_1$   $r_2$   $r_3$  and the leakage inductances  $l_1$   $l_2$   $l_3$  as well as the magnetizing characteristics of the core which is modeled by a linear rm lm branch

how to use hugging face transformer models in matlab - Apr 30 2022 web you can use transformer models such as bert and gpt 2 in matlab for text based applications with text analytics toolbox and deep learning toolbox you can also use models from external frameworks such as hugging face a new modeling of matlab transformer for accurate simulation of - Dec 07 2022 web abstract the main aim of this paper is to present a new modelling of transformers in simulink matlab enabling to simulate slow transients more accurate than the existing models used in the software in this paper first several types of transformer cores and their magnetic behaviors are described transformer models file exchange matlab central - Sep 16 2023 web overview functions version history reviews 2 discussions 5 transformer models for matlab this repository implements deep learning transformer models in matlab translations
