Afrocubanas: Historia, pensamiento y prácticas culturales Daisy Rubiera Castillo,Inés María Martiatu,2011

Afrocubanas: historia, pensamiento y prácticas culturales es una compilación que propone un enfoque de género sobre la discriminación racial. Los trabajos reunidos en el volumen muestran la historia de la mujer negra cubana y cómo ha tenido que luchar contra una doble discriminación: racial y de género. Compilación: obra en que se recogen varios textos, por ende, “de texto” es redundante. Los textos rompen con los clichés acerca de la mujer negra, reproducidos por parte de la sociedad en su cotidiano de vida, en manifestaciones del arte popular, en los medios de difusión masiva y en otras formas creadoras de opinión. Asimismo saca a la luz otro punto de vista acerca de las afrocubanas, su acción, pensamiento e historia de resistencia, así como la influencia determinante que han tenido en el proceso de consolidación de la identidad nacional. / Afro-Cuban: history, thinking and cultural practices is a compilation that proposes a gender approach to racial discrimination. The papers included in this volume show the black women’s history and the way they had to struggle against a dual racial and gender discrimination. The papers brake with the repeated ideas about black women, which are reproduced by part of the society in its everyday life in popular art, media and other ways used to create public opinion. This material also states another point of view about Afro-Cuban women, their action, thinking and resistance history as well as the determining factor they had in the national identity consolidation process.
