Alexandria: World Class Life Story ,BDL, 2019-02-11 Get lost in an enveloping epic tale about an iconic celebrity of the twenty-first century whose autobiography inspires a dynamic patriotic resistance against a full-fledged Judeo-Christophobic America. Alexandria: World Class Life Story is a riveting hypothetical drama that details her amazing life set in a dystopic America paralleled by a resulting dedication to salvaging her beloved nation from doom. But in order to do this, she must first find a suitable biographer to transfer an influential legacy of faith and resolution for a new generation of patriots to make an emboldened stand against the oppressive establishment. Alexandria presents an ambitious provocative exploratory portrayal of what happens to a country that moves farther away from custom and totally abandons its traditional faith heritage. Will this be the end of America? Discover what happens when America alienates the people who guaranteed blessings upon this nation and the resulting destructive path certain to follow. This story illustrates the importance of following through with commitments for the sake of those who'll follow. See how this captivating bio-political drama unfolds. So get ready. And gear up for the spellbinding dramatic End Game.

BEYOND SAN ANDREAS Albert J. Mortiz, 2010-11-09 A group of professionals joined together for a camping trip and develop their skills, alertness and knowledge. Camping trip was disrupted by a big earthquake and their daring escape, filled with fun and hard work to freedom. The every day scenario at work; the pressure, fun, problem solving, love and devotion. The night intruders attacked one of the Team member and how they captured the criminal. The celebration, the traditions and superstition about marriage. The wedding party and stories about European travel, an experience filled with adventure and laughter. The choices and decisions of their life, the betrayal, and trust about love and devotion. The wedding and the spectacular survival from death and the final destination; to oblivion.

Parenting Your Internationally Adopted Child Patty Cogen, 2011-05-14 Parenting Your Internationally Adopted Child guides adoptive parents in promoting a child's emotional and social adjustment, from the family's first hours together through the teen years. It explains how to help an adopted child cope with the "Big Change," bond with new parents, become part of a family, and develop a positive self-image that incorporates both American identity and ethnicity origins. Parents waiting to meet their adoptive children will appreciate Cogen's advice about preparing for the trip and handling the first meeting. The author's main focus, though, is the child's adaptation over the next months and years. Cogen explains how to deal with the child's "mixed maturities"; how (and why) to tell the child's story from the child's point of view; how to handle sleep problems and resistance to household rules; and how to encourage eye contact and ease transitions and separations. The reassuring narrative tone and the breadth and depth of information make this the most substantive and accessible book available and an indispensable resource for parents who adopt, professionals who advise adoptive parents, and teachers of adoptive children

Venturing Into a Child's World Richard D. Dobbins,1985

Fumbling Thru Fatherhood Jared Fiel,2004-04 A collection of columns which originally appeared in The Greeley tribune and the Fort Morgan times.

From Burma with Love Stephen W. Reiss,2011-11-14 Irv and Mary Reiss (aka Dad and Mom) wrote this book as two letters per day for fifteen months from late 1943 through March 1945. Friends and relatives added more letters to bring the total to nearly 1,000. Virtually all of their letters ended with I love you very very much and I miss you very very much. It's easy to empathize with their frustrations and anxieties about being separated and worried, especially with the birth and nurturing of their first child Stephen (aka me) in June 1944. This book title of From Burma With Love is an understatement. Irv Reiss served in the US Army from June 27, 1941 until September 17, 1945 for a total of 4 years, 2 months, and 20 days. Foreign service in India and Burma (Myanmar) was 1 year, 1 month, and 23 days. The foreign service in Burma was very intense and is the heart of this book -- hence the name, From Burma With Love. Irv was a labor officer along the Ledo Road from August 28, 1944 until December 11, 1944. His job was to hire and feed and pay several thousand native laborers (and a few elephants) to help build that road from Ledo, India to Mongyu, Burma. Read his letter of October 7, 1944.
